

Retirement Industry Conference presentation in Chicago, IL

Latin America Conference presentation in Brazil, South America

Montminy family vacation in Ireland

Montminy family vacation in the Netherlands

Montminy family night out

Bobby and his family joined my Alz Walk team 2 years ago

Bowling with Bobby and friends

Original Investigation

October 3, 2022

Risk of Suicide After Dementia Diagnosis

Danah Alothman, BMBCh, MPH¹; Timothy Card, FRCP, PhD¹; Sarah Lewis, PhD¹; et al

JAMA Neurol. 2022;79(11):1148-1154. doi:10.1001/jamaneurol.2022.3094

Original Investigation

October 3, 2022

Risk of Suicide After Dementia Diagnosis

A dementia diagnosis more than doubles the risk of suicide in the first three months after patient receives the news.

The risk was highest during the first 3 months for people younger than age 65: Suicide risk was 6.7 times higher than in patients without dementia.